"Navigating Foreign Waters: Antitrust Issues for U.S. Companies in Europe and Elsewhere"

Presenter:

Howard Bergman, General Counsel, Europe, Middle East and Africa, 3M Europe S.A.

What antitrust concerns should you have when your client does business in Europe? Are the antitrust laws in Europe, and the enforcement of those laws, significantly different from what we experience in the United States? Do countries around the world tend to follow the American model, a European model, or some model of their own? How can in-house counsel identify the proper issues and know when to bring in outside legal help?

Howard Bergman, an experienced antitrust lawyer and in-house counselor in the United States, has spent the last eight months in Brussels grappling with these and similar questions for his client 3M. In this program, he will share what he has learned.

Reservations and payments are required by Tuesday, April 19, 2005. No refunds after this date.
