The Antitrust Section of the Minnesota State Bar Association presents

Inside the Tent: Class Action Plaintiffs' Counsel, CAFA, PSLRA and More

Dan Gustafson Partner, Gustafson Gluek PLLC

Joe Bruckner Partner, Lockridge Grindal Nauen PLLP

Michael Lindsay (Moderator) Partner, Dorsey & Whitney LLP

Tuesday, September 19, 2006 12:00 - 1:30 PM Marriott Hotel at City Center

What's been happening in class-action litigation since CAFA, and how are plaintiffs' lawyers dealing with it? Two nationally known members of the plaintiff's class action bar from Minnesota will offer their insights on a range of issues from basic organization of the plaintiffs' counsel in a class action to strategic questions that plaintiffs' counsel face in antitrust and other class-action litigation. The format will be to respond to approximately 10 pre-set questions. You are invited to submit your questions in advance to kbasting@mnbar.org.

1.0 hour of Standard CLE credit will be applied for. A plated lunch will be served. To guarantee a reservation RSVP by Friday, September 15, 2006.
