

Meeting Notice

The Antitrust Section of the Minnesota State Bar Association
presents

“Recent Developments in Criminal Antitrust Enforcement and Issues Relating to Corporate Compliance Programs”

Marvin Price

Chief, Chicago Field Office
US Justice Department Antitrust Division

Tuesday, December 12, 2006
12:00 – 1:30 PM

Crowne Plaza Northstar Hotel, 618 Second Av S, Minneapolis

Marv Price will discuss Antitrust Division Criminal enforcement policies, the tools and mechanisms the government uses to detect price fixing and other criminal offense, and nuances of the Leniency Program which has been responsible for unravelling price-fixing conspiracies. In addition, he will discuss the elements of an effective corporate antitrust compliance program and the role it and cooperation can play in sentencing and other penalties.

The Chicago Field Office is one of the most active Field Offices in the United States. It has been responsible for investigating and litigating national and international cartel activity, including the ADM case. Minnesota is in the jurisdiction of the Chicago Field Office, so this is a great opportunity to get to know the cop on the beat.

1.0 hour of standard CLE credit will be applied for. A plated lunch will be served.
